CONFLICT RESOLUTION

IN THE CONTEXT OF GENDER

Six sessions on Thursdays 27.10.
18:00 - 20:00 (GMT+ 2) 03.11. / 10.11. / 17.11. / 24.11
19:00 - 21:00 (Jerusalem time) 01.12.

In each session, you'll explore:

- Do conflict resolution models address women's needs?
- Do win-win solutions adequately consider women's perspective and approach?
- Should conflict resolution be focused on rights/needs?
- Which mediation theory best suits women: business, therapy, civil society?
- Does women's participation yield more sustainable solutions?
- Reconciliation and conflict resolution from the perspective of gender

THE SPECIALITY - BETZAVTA[©]

This course will be taught through the award-winning BETZAVTA[©] method, which encourages participants to go beyond all-or-nothing options and see conflicts as dilemmas and develop a way of dealing with them.

The course will be led by Dr. Uki Maroshek-Klarman, Executive Director of the Adam Institute for Democracy and Peace and founder of BETZAVTA[©]. Join us for this experiential learning!

LEARNING ONLINE brings together people and perspectives from around the world who might not otherwise meet. To date, people from 15 countries have participated in ADAM Institute for Democracy and Peace Online Workshops.
